EXTENDED STAY HOTELS

The following 2 websites are links to two “reasonably priced” extended stay hotels. Both hotels are located in downtown London so the bus ride to school will be under 15 minutes.

Both hotels offer rates for staying an extended period of time – usually over 7 days. The price will vary depending on the length of stay but both hotels seemed willing to negotiate a price (2007/2008 – the prices were $115 - $150 – per night). The Residence Inn offered a price which included breakfast and a light supper.

Both hotels have suites which have full kitchen facilities and 1 or 2 bedrooms.
